

What is the difference?

DCHI SC Subcommittee for the Regional Housing Strategy

VS.

Dane County Regional Housing Strategy Advisory Team?

DCHI SC Subcommittee for the Regional Housing Strategy

Made up of DCHI SC members interested in providing pre-development support to the Dane County Regional Housing Strategy initiative to launch in Q1 2022

Roles and Responsibilities

1. Provides feedback on pre-development activities and scope of work for the Regional Housing Strategy
2. Attends DCHI Steering Committee Meetings, 2nd Tuesday of each month, 3:00-4:00 pm
3. Serves as liaison and ambassador to your community and networks regarding the Regional Housing Strategy
4. Help to facilitate communication regarding the regional housing survey to your networks and community
5. Provide input and sign off on Dane County Regional Housing Strategy Advisory Committee

Dane County Regional Housing Strategy Advisory Team

Cross sector of diverse regional stakeholders including residents; city, village, and town representatives; large employers, small business, banking and finance; chambers; housing agencies and non-profit organizations; school districts; and, other housing stakeholders.

Roles and Responsibilities – RHS Advisory Team will meet to learn, review, analyze regional level data, engage in and discuss questions and information as it relates to the Dane County housing shortage and housing instability. The RHS Advisory Team will meet over 7-8 meetings identify a vision for housing for the next ten-20 years, and identify key strategies to work on and work towards together.

